1 - INTRODUCTION

WELCOME

Adelaide Quality Care would like to wish you every success during your employment, whether you recently joined or whether you are an existing employee; it is hoped that your experience of working with us is positive and rewarding.

PURPOSE OF THE EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

The Employee Handbook sets out the Employer's rules and regulations, the policies and procedures relating to your employment and contains information on your benefits and protections. If you require any clarification or additional information, please speak to the manager.

All employees are required to comply with the Employee Handbook and we therefore ask that you take the time to read the content carefully. Staff can be subject to appropriate disciplinary action (up to and including termination) in the event that you breach the terms and conditions contained in this Employee Handbook, any organisational policies and procedures and any terms of your contract of employment.

PRINCIPLE OF EQUALITY

Adelaide Quality Care is committed to providing equal opportunities and the principle of equality in accordance with relevant legislative provisions. We are confident that you share our commitment in implementing these policies. AQC will not tolerate any unlawful, discriminatory actions or attitudes in the course of your employment or in your dealings with our consumers, suppliers, contractors, members of the public or fellow colleagues. Acts of unlawful discrimination, harassment or victimisation will result in disciplinary action.

2 - JOINING THE ORGANISATION

INDUCTION

At the start of your employment, you will be required to complete an induction program, during which our policies and procedures will be provided to you and or explained, and how to access these via electronic means as necessary. Competency assessments may also be required to assess your level of knowledge and skills. Your first shift will be a paid orientation 'buddy' shift, and you will be allocated with an AQC staff member.

PROBATIONARY PERIOD

The length of your probationary period is set out in your contract of employment. Casual employees are not subject to a probationary period. During this period, your work performance and general suitability will be assessed and if it is satisfactory, your employment will continue. However, if your work performance is assessed as generally unsuitable, AQC may either take remedial action (which may include the extension of your probationary period) or terminate your employment at any time.

EMPLOYEE TRAINING

At the commencement of your employment, you will receive any training necessary for your specific allocated tasks. As your employment progresses, your role may be extended to encompass new or more complex activities within the company. You are expected to participate in any training deemed necessary for you to perform your role at the required standards. Additionally, there will be specific training which will be mandatory and must be completed throughout your employment. In the event you are not compliant with these directions your tenure with Adelaide Quality Care may be cancelled.

TRAINING AGREEMENT

Adelaide Quality Care has a policy of encouraging its employees to undertake training to advance their skills and career to the benefit of both AQC and the individual.

AQC may agree to contribute to the cost of the training. In this event, you may be asked to enter a specific agreement for training (the Training Agreement). However, where AQC has contributed to your training and your employment is terminated, for whatever reason, AQC will seek reimbursement of the costs in line with the Training Agreement. Further conditions and details are available separately.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job descriptions are available in the staff Dropbox. These job descriptions provide a breakdown and illustrate your role within AQC. Amendments may be made to your job description from time to time in accordance with the Employer's changing needs and your own ability.

3 - REMUNERATION

PAY CYCLE

AQC's pay week runs from Tuesday to the following Monday and pays are processed weekly on Thursday's. You will be assigned an I-care mobile login and timesheets are automatically generated by checking in and out of shifts. Those without I-care mobile accounts will need to complete an electronic AQC timesheet (saved in Dropbox) and send via email to accounts@adelaidequalitycare.com.au before 5pm COB Tuesdays. If timesheets are not received by the specified time, they will be processed the following week.

REIMBURSEMENTS

If a staff member spends their own money on a consumer's needs during a shift; staff need to fill in a reimbursement form (saved in Dropbox). Each reimbursement form needs to be accompanied by a legible receipt that itemises each item. Please ensure form is filled out correctly with the date, amount, item purchased and consumer's name.

LATENESS / ABSENTEEISM

You are required to be present and ready to commence work at your rostered starting time. In the event you are going to be late to work, or following an authorised break, you are required to notify your manager as soon as possible and indicate what time you expect to arrive.

If you are late to commence or return to work, AQC will deduct an amount of pay equivalent to the time of your lateness. If you arrive for work more than one hour late without having previously notified the Employer, other arrangements may have been made to cover your duties and you may be sent off the premises for the remainder of the shift/day without pay.

All absences due to illness must be notified in accordance with the sickness reporting procedures set out in this Employee Handbook.

Lateness or unauthorised absence may result in disciplinary action and or loss of pay.

BREAKS

Breaks are to be taken when arranged by the Employer. You are required to adhere to the break length as directed by management and be ready to commence work at the end of the break. You are required to notify management immediately if you are struggling to take the break, so that it can be rectified or varied.

SHORTAGE OF WORK

If there is a temporary shortage of work for any reason, we will try to maintain your continuity of employment. With your agreement, we may place you on reduced hours, or alternatively, temporary leave. If you agree to be placed on reduced hours, your pay will be reduced according to actual hours worked. If you are placed on leave, this will be processed as leave without pay unless you elect to utilise any accrued leave entitlements.

- AQC may send you home where there is no useful work for you to do, such as during:
breakdown of equipment
 - industrial action

There may be exceptions where a consumer may request staff do not wear uniform. This will be discussed on an individual basis.

4 – LEAVE

ANNUAL LEAVE

You are entitled to accrue annual leave in accordance with the NES, unless otherwise stated in your contract of employment. Casual employees are not entitled to annual leave. Your annual leave pay will be at your normal basic pay rate, unless shown otherwise in your contract of employment.

It is the Employer's policy to encourage you to take all your holiday entitlement in the current year. You must complete the Leave Request Form and have it signed by management before you make any firm holiday arrangements.

You must give four weeks' notice of your intention to take annual leave. Annual leave dates will normally be allocated on a "first come, first served" basis whilst ensuring that operational efficiency and appropriate staffing levels are maintained throughout the year. Due to the nature of the business, AQC can only accommodate a limited number of employees taking annual leave at the same time.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

Your entitlement to public holidays is in accordance with the NES, unless otherwise stated in your individual contract of employment. However, due to the nature of the Employer's work, you may be reasonably required to work a public holiday. You will be given advance notice if work on a public holiday is required.

PERSONAL LEAVE

You are entitled to be paid for personal leave in accordance with the NES, unless otherwise stated in your contract of employment. Casual employees are not entitled to paid personal leave. Paid personal leave accrues over the course of your employment. Full time employees will accrue up to ten days of paid personal leave for each year of continuous service. Part time and fixed-term employees are entitled to this entitlement on a pro-rata basis. Personal leave accrues, and will be credited to you, progressively throughout the year. Unused personal leave will not be paid out on termination.

You are entitled to take personal leave:

because you are not fit for work due to a personal illness or personal injury affecting you or to provide care or support to a member of your immediate family, or a member of your household who requires your care and support because of;

- a personal illness or injury affecting the member or
- a sudden and/or unexpected emergency affecting the member.

If your entitlement to personal leave is exhausted, you may take two days' unpaid carer's leave for each occasion when a member of your immediate family or a member of your household requires your care and support because of;

- a personal illness or personal injury affecting the member or
- a sudden or unexpected emergency affecting the member.

PARENTAL LEAVE

If you or your partner become pregnant you should notify management at an early stage so that your entitlements and obligations can be explained to you. Under the NES, employees who will have at least 12 months of continuous service as at the expected date of birth of the child, are entitled to 52 weeks of unpaid parental leave. Casuals with regular on-going work are also entitled to unpaid parental leave. You may request an additional 52 weeks of leave which will only be refused by AQC on reasonable business grounds.

Other forms of leave, such as annual leave and long service leave, may be taken concurrently with parental leave, but when combined with the unpaid parental leave must not exceed the 52-week period. Leave is available only to the primary caregiver of the child, except at the birth of the child where the other parent is entitled to eight weeks of concurrent unpaid leave. You must give AQC at least ten weeks prior notice of your intention to take unpaid parental leave. This can be done in accordance with the Employer's leave application procedures. When advising of your intention to take unpaid parental leave you must provide the following:

- A medical certificate indicating the expected date of birth of the child
- An expected return date and
- Details of any parental leave your partner intends to take.

COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

Full time and part time employees are entitled to two days paid compassionate leave for each occasion when a member of your immediate family, a member of your household or your spouse's immediate family:

- Contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to their life or
- Sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to their life or
- Dies.

LONG SERVICE LEAVE

You are entitled to long service leave in accordance with the relevant laws of the state in which you are employed. Long service leave should be taken as soon as reasonably practicable after you become entitled to it.

COMMUNITY SERVICE LEAVE

You are entitled to community service leave in certain circumstances. Community service leave is for eligible community service activities such as SES and volunteer fire fighting. Community service is generally unpaid. Your entitlement for payment for Jury Duty will depend on the relevant state and federal legislation.

TIME OFF

Circumstances may arise where you need time off for medical/dental appointments, or for other reasons. Where possible, such appointments should be made outside normal working hours. If this is not possible, time off required for these purposes may be granted at the discretion of management and will normally be without pay.

NOTIFICATION OF LEAVE

You must notify AQC by telephone on the first day of incapacity or at the earliest possible opportunity and, in any case, by no later than 6 hours before your usual start time.

Text messages and emails are not an acceptable method of notification. Notice of intended personal leave must be phoned through to the office and acknowledged by a manager. Please notify AQC of your expected return date.

EVIDENCE

A medical certificate from a registered health practitioner or statutory declaration is required from the employee setting out the reasons for the absence in circumstances where the personal leave is on two or more consecutive days.

AQC retains the discretion to require a doctor's certificate or statutory declaration for any absence. AQC will notify you of this requirement as appropriate. AQC retains the discretion to require evidence for carer's leave. AQC will notify you of this requirement as appropriate.

RETURN TO WORK

You should notify your manager as soon as you know which day you will be returning to work, if this differs from a date of return previously notified. On return to work after any period of personal leave, you may be required to attend a return-to-work interview to discuss the state of your health and fitness for work. Information arising from such an interview will be treated with strictest confidence. You may be required to provide a certificate from your own doctor stating that you are fit to return to your duties. This will always be required where you have suffered a workplace injury/illness that required medical treatment. If you have been suffering from an infectious or contagious disease or illness such as rubella or hepatitis, you must not report for work without clearance from your own doctor.

Submission of a medical certificate may not always be regarded as sufficient justification for accepting your absence. Sickness is just one of a number of reasons for absence and although it is understandable that if you are sick, you may need time off, continual, or repeated absence through sickness may not be acceptable to the Employer. In deciding whether your absence is acceptable, AQC will consider the reasons for your absences and extent of them, including any absence caused by sickness/injury. We cannot operate with an excessive level of absence as all absences, for whatever reason, reduce the Employer's ability to operate successfully. AQC will not tolerate any non-genuine absences, and any such instances will result in disciplinary action being taken. If considered necessary, we reserve the right to ask your permission to contact your doctor and/or for you to be independently medically examined.

Information acquired through such monitoring may be used as evidence in disciplinary proceedings.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Whilst social media can be used to strengthen the Employer's brand and overall image of the business, work related issues or materials being placed on social media can adversely affect the Employer, a customer/consumer, colleague, or others.

Social media is a mechanism for communication and sharing, rather than one specific program, activity, or object. It is often a website or other electronic application that enable users to create and share content or to participate in social networking.

To protect the mutual interest of all involved, work related matters must not be placed on social media at any time either during or outside of working hours and this includes access via any mobile computer equipment, including mobile phone or other devices unless approved in advance. Work-related usually means that the Employer, its consumers, suppliers, employees, contractors, or any other associated parties can be identified and be in some way connected back to your relationship with the Employer.

All employees are prohibited from using social media, whether on the Employer's devices or their own personal device during work time. Any breach of this policy will be considered serious and may result in disciplinary action.

The Employer's phones, computers, laptops, and other devices are to be used for business purposes and where approved, reasonable incidental personal use. Personal calls to international numbers or other high-cost numbers are not permitted. Any unauthorised personal use may be repayable by you and may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. AQC reserves the right to request to deduct the appropriate sums from your salary in the event that repayments are not made.

Personal mobile phones, mp3 players and other personal devices should not be used during work time, other than in emergencies. Your mobile phone must stay with you at all times whilst inside a consumer's home for safety purposes, but only to be used in emergency situations. Should you need to be contacted during shift time, you are permitted to answer business calls from the office.

SURVEILLANCE

Surveillance may be conducted in the workplace. If you are a new employee, the surveillance may already be in place and could start immediately on commencement of work.

Surveillance may be conducted using:

- Internet usage recording devices, such as data capture, web browsing and email history captured on servers, and keystroke recognition
- Any form of visual recording devices including all types of camera, such as CCTV cameras

The surveillance may be conducted at any time and any employee may be subject to surveillance. The surveillance may be continuous or intermittent at the Employer's discretion. AQC may, at their discretion, disclose the surveillance records for any reason that is not barred by privacy legislation.

You may consult with AQC regarding any concerns about the surveillance. AQC reserves the right to review and use the CCTV in disciplinary proceedings.

6 – STANDARDS

BEHAVIOUR AT WORK

You should behave with civility towards fellow colleagues, consumers, and members of the public, at work and out in public and at all times when in AQC uniform. Rudeness will not be permitted. Objectionable or insulting behaviour or bad language may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. You should use your best endeavours to promote the interests of AQC and shall, during normal working hours, devote the whole of your time, attention, and abilities to AQC and its affairs.

Any involvement in activities which could be construed as being in competition with AQC is not permitted or tolerated.

FRIENDS AND FAMILY IN THE WORKPLACE

Friends and family must not be in the workplace, unless approved in advance by the Employer, or due to an emergency or for genuine business reasons. It is your responsibility to ensure that friends and family are not in the workplace for longer than necessary

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

You may not be involved, employed, or engaged in any activity which may be or is likely to create a conflict of interest. AQC may take whatever action it determines appropriate to avoid the actual or potential conflict of interest. Such action may include transfers, reassignments, changing shifts, or, where the Employer deems such action appropriate, termination of employment.

WASTAGE

We maintain a policy of "minimum waste", which is essential to the cost-effective and efficient running of the business and environmental care. You are able to promote this policy by taking extra care during your normal duties by avoiding unnecessary or extravagant use of services, time, energy, etc. The following points are illustrations of this:

- Handle machines, equipment, and stock with care
- Turn off any unnecessary lighting and heating
- Double side printing, including re-using scrap paper, where possible
- Ask for other work if the task you were working on has come to a standstill or been completed and
- Start with the minimum delay after arriving for work and after breaks.

DAMAGE

Any damage to vehicles, stock, or property (including non-statutory safety equipment) that is the result of your carelessness, negligence or deliberate vandalism will render you liable to pay the full or part of the cost of repair or replacement

- In the event of an at fault accident whilst driving one of the Employer's vehicles you may be required to pay the cost of the insurance excess.

In the event of failure to pay, AQC reserves the right to request to deduct such costs from your pay.

DRESS, APPEARANCE AND UNIFORM POLICY

Consistent with the culture of the Employer, you will be expected to present a professional image with regard to your appearance and standards of dress and maintain excellent standards of personal hygiene at all times.

- Where uniforms are provided, these must be worn at all times whilst at work and laundered on a regular basis, refer also to AQC Uniform policy.
- Personal protective equipment (PPE) and clothing may be issued for your protection because of the nature of your job and if issued must be worn and used at all appropriate times. Failure to do so could be a contravention of your health and safety responsibilities. Once issued, this protective wear/equipment is your responsibility.
- At the cessation of your employment you must return any uniform and personal protective equipment issued to you. Failure to return your uniform and personal protective equipment within seven days may result in the cost of the items being deducted from any monies outstanding to you.
- If, you arrive for work in a manner that does not comply with this policy, your manager will advise you that you are not dressed or groomed appropriately to perform your duties. As a result, you may be sent home to change with any resulting lost time being unpaid.
- Any deliberate or persistent breaches of this policy may result in disciplinary action being taken against you. If you are in any doubt whether any aspect of your appearance or attire is appropriate for your job role you should contact management.

7 - GENERAL TERMS

CHANGES IN PERSONAL DETAILS

You must notify AQC of any changes in your personal details including but not limited to your name, address, telephone number, emergency contact, banking, or superannuation details to enable us in maintaining accurate records.

SECONDARY EMPLOYMENT

You are expected to devote the whole of your time and attention during working hours to our business. If you propose taking up additional employment with an additional Employer or pursuing separate business interests or any similar venture, you must discuss the proposal with your manager in order to establish the likely impact of these activities on both yourself and the Employer. You will be asked to give full details of the proposal and consideration will be given to:

- Working hours
- Competition, reputation, and credibility
- Conflict of interest and
- Health, safety, and welfare.

You will be notified in writing of the Employer's decision. AQC may refuse to consent to your request. If you work without consent this could result in the termination of your employment.

If you already have any other employment or are considering any additional employment, you must notify AQC so that we can discuss any implications arising from such employment, i.e. working time, health and safety issues or conflicts of interest. You may not under any circumstances, whether directly or indirectly, undertake any other duties of whatever kind during your hours of work with AQC or whilst on Employer premises.

Unless approved by the Employer, you may not under any circumstances perform services similar to what are performed for the Employer in your residence or at any other site in exchange for compensation.

EMPLOYEE'S PROPERTY AND LOST PROPERTY

We do not accept liability for any loss of, or damage to, property that you bring onto the premises. You are requested not to bring personal items of value onto the premises and, not to leave any item overnight.

8 - CAPABILITY

We recognise that during your employment with us you may find yourself less capable of conducting your duties. This might commonly be because either your job changes over a period of time and you fail to keep pace with the changes, or you experience change (perhaps because of health reasons) and you can no longer manage the work. We retain discretion in respect of the capability procedures to take account of your length of service and to vary the procedures accordingly.

JOB CHANGES/GENERAL CAPABILITY ISSUES.

If we have general concerns about your ability to perform your job or if the nature of your job changes, we will try to ensure that you understand the level of performance expected of you and that you receive adequate training and supervision. Concerns regarding your capability will normally first be discussed in an informal manner and you will be given time to improve. If your standard of performance is still not adequate, you will be warned in writing that a failure to improve and to maintain the performance required could lead to your termination. We will also consider the possibility of a transfer to more suitable work if possible.

If there is still no improvement after a reasonable time and we cannot transfer you to more suitable work, or if your level of performance has a serious or substantial effect on AQC to its detriment, you will be dismissed with the appropriate notice.

PERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCE/HEALTH ISSUES.

Personal circumstances may arise which do not prevent you from attending work, but which prevent you from carrying out your normal duties (e.g. a lack of dexterity or general ill health). If such a situation arises, we will generally need to have details of your medical diagnosis and prognosis so that we have the benefit of expert advice. Under normal circumstances, this can be most easily obtained by asking your own doctor for a medical report. Your permission is needed before we can obtain such a report and we will expect you to co-operate in this matter should the need arise. When we have obtained as much information as possible regarding your condition and after consultation with you, a decision will be made about your future employment with AQC in your current role or, where circumstances permit, in a more suitable role.

9 - DISCIPLINE

INTRODUCTION

This policy sets standards of performance and behaviour expected by the Employer, together with the procedure to be followed in the event of disciplinary issues. The policy aims to help promote fairness and order in the treatment of individuals. It is the Employer's aim that the rules and procedures should emphasise and encourage improvement in the conduct of individuals where they are failing to meet the required standards, and not be seen merely as a means of punishment. We reserve the right to amend these rules and procedures where appropriate.

Every effort will be made to ensure that any action taken under this procedure is fair, with you being given the opportunity to state your case.

The following rules and procedures should ensure that:

- The correct procedure is used when requiring you to attend a disciplinary hearing
- You are fully aware of the standards of performance, action and behaviour required of you
- Disciplinary action, where necessary, is taken speedily and in a fair, uniform, and consistent manner
- You will only be disciplined after careful investigation of the facts and the opportunity to present your side of the case
- At all disciplinary hearings, rather than investigatory meetings, you have the right to be accompanied by a support person at all stages of the formal disciplinary process
- You will not normally be dismissed for a first breach of discipline, except in the case of serious misconduct and
 - If you are disciplined, you will receive an explanation of the penalty imposed.

On some occasions temporary suspension on contractual pay may be necessary in order that an uninterrupted investigation can take place. This should not be regarded as disciplinary action or a penalty of any kind.

DISCIPLINARY RULES

It is not practicable to specify all disciplinary rules or offences that may result in disciplinary action, as they may vary depending on the nature of the work. In addition to the specific examples of unsatisfactory conduct, misconduct and serious misconduct shown in this policy, a breach of other specific conditions, procedures and practices set out elsewhere in this Employee Handbook or that have otherwise been made known to you, will also result in this procedure being used to deal with such matters.

RULES COVERING UNSATISFACTORY CONDUCT AND MISCONDUCT

You will be liable to disciplinary action if you are found to have acted in any of the following ways:

- Failure to abide by the Employer's health and safety policies and procedures and your general health and safety responsibilities
 - Actions which could threaten the health and safety of yourself, your colleagues, or others
 - Persistent absenteeism and/or lateness
 - Unsatisfactory standards or output of work
 - Rudeness towards customers/consumers, members of the public or your colleagues, objectionable or insulting behaviour, harassment, bullying or bad language
 - Failure to devote the whole of your time, attention and abilities to our business and its affairs during your normal working hours
 - Unauthorised use of email, internet, and/or social media
 - Failure to carry out all reasonable instructions or follow our rules and procedures
 - Use of the Employer's vehicles without approval or the private use of our commercial vehicles without authorisation
 - Failure to report any incident whilst driving the Employer's vehicles, whether or not personal injury or vehicle damage occurs
 - if your work involves driving, failure to report immediately any type of driving conviction, or any summons which may lead to your conviction
 - Carrying unauthorised goods or passengers in the Employer's commercial vehicles or the use of the Employer's vehicles for personal gain
 - Loss of driving licence where driving on public roads forms an essential part of the duties of the role
 - Unauthorised use or negligent damage or loss of our property and
 - Failure to report immediately any damage to property or premises caused by you.
- This list is not exhaustive.

SERIOUS MISCONDUCT

Occurrences of serious misconduct are significant because the penalty may be termination without notice, even without any previous warning being issued. It is not possible to provide an exhaustive list of examples of serious misconduct. However, any behaviour or negligence resulting in a fundamental breach of your contractual terms that irrevocably destroys the trust and confidence necessary to continue the employment relationship will constitute serious misconduct. Examples of offences that will normally be considered to be serious misconduct include serious instances of:

- Theft or fraud
- Physical violence or bullying
- Deliberate damage to property
- Deliberate acts of unlawful discrimination or harassment
- Possession, or being under the influence, of illegal drugs at work and
- Breach of the Employer's health and safety policies and procedures and your general health and safety responsibilities or any actions that endangers the lives of, or may cause serious injury to, employees or any other person.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

Disciplinary action taken against you may be based on the following procedure:

Offence	1 st occasion	2 nd occasion	3 rd occasion	4 th occasion
Unsatisfactory conduct	Formal verbal warning	Written warning	Final written warning	termination
Misconduct	Final written warning	Termination	-	-
Serious misconduct	Termination	-	-	-

We retain discretion in respect of the disciplinary procedures to take account of your length of service and the severity of the misconduct to vary the procedures accordingly. If you have a short amount of service, you may not be in receipt of any warnings before termination, but you will retain the right to a disciplinary hearing. If a disciplinary penalty is imposed it will be in line with the procedure outlined above, which may encompass a formal verbal warning, written warning, final written warning, or termination, and full details will be given to you.

There may be occasions where the performance or conduct of an employee is serious enough to by-pass one of the above steps and move immediately to a first and final written warning but not a summary termination. This option might be used in circumstances where the Employer's policy is breached but it is not so serious as to warrant instant termination.

In all cases, warnings will be issued for misconduct, irrespective of the precise matters concerned and any further breach of the rules in relation to similar or entirely independent matters of misconduct will be treated as further disciplinary matters and allow the continuation of the disciplinary process through to termination if the warnings do not change behaviour.

GENERAL NOTES

If you are in a supervisory or managerial position then demotion to a lower status at the appropriate rate of pay may be considered as an alternative to termination, except in cases of serious misconduct. In exceptional circumstances, suspension from work without pay for up to five days as an alternative to termination (except termination for serious misconduct) may be considered by the person authorised to dismiss.

Serious misconduct offences will result in termination without notice.

GRIEVANCE

It is important that if you feel dissatisfied with any matter relating to your employment you should have an effective means by which to raise such a grievance and, where appropriate, have it resolved.

Nothing in this procedure is intended to prevent you from informally raising with your manager any matter you may wish to mention. Informal discussion can frequently solve problems without the need for a written record. However, if you wish to raise a formal grievance you should normally do so in writing from the outset.

If you feel aggrieved at any matter relating to your work (except harassment, for which there is a separate procedure), you should first raise the matter with your manager, explaining fully the nature and extent of your grievance. You will then be invited to a meeting at a reasonable time and location at which your grievance will be investigated fully. You must take all reasonable steps to attend this meeting. You will be notified of the decision, in writing, normally within ten working days of the meeting.

11 - EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES AND ANTI-DISCRIMINATION

STATEMENT OF POLICY

We recognise that discrimination is unacceptable and, although equality of opportunity has been a long-standing feature of our practices and procedure, we have made the decision to adopt a formal equal opportunities policy.

Breaches of the policy will lead to disciplinary proceedings and, if appropriate, disciplinary action.

The aim of the policy is to ensure that no job applicant or employee is discriminated against either directly or indirectly on the grounds of age, disability, gender identity, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex, or sexual orientation.

The policy will be communicated to all private contractors reminding them of their responsibilities in respect of equality of opportunity.

We will maintain a neutral workplace in which no employee or other worker feels under threat or intimidated.

RECRUITMENT AND SELECTION

The recruitment and selection process is crucially important to any equal opportunities policy. We will endeavour through appropriate training to 'ensure that employees making selection and recruitment decisions will not discriminate, whether consciously or unconsciously, in making these decisions.

Promotion and advancement will be made on merit and all decisions relating to this will be made within the overall framework and principles of this policy.

We will adopt a consistent, non-discriminatory approach to the advertising of vacancies. We will not confine our recruitment to areas or media sources which provide only, or mainly, applicants of a particular group. All applicants who apply for jobs with us will receive fair treatment and will be considered solely on their ability to do the job.

All employees involved in the recruitment process will periodically review their selection criteria to ensure that they are related to the job requirements and do not unlawfully discriminate.

Short listing and interviewing will be carried out by more than one person where possible. Interview questions will be related to the requirements of the job and will not be of a discriminatory nature. Selection decisions will not be influenced by any perceived prejudices of other staff. All promotions will be in line with this policy.
